Non-Resident Cards for Non-Resident Employees

Morrison-Talbott Library part-time and full-time employees who reside outside of the city limits of Waterloo, Illinois, and who are, therefore, by Illinois Library Law considered to be non-residents, shall receive a non-resident library card for their personal and professional use at no cost. Upon their termination, the non-resident library card will expire. All items lost or damaged by the employee shall be charged a replacement cost which is the sole responsibility of the employee. All other non-resident library card policies shall apply, including the requirement to renew the card annually with an annual address check.
