

Morrison-Talbott Library Conflict of Interest Policy

Morrison-Talbott Library prohibits trustees and employees from selling personal items on library grounds or during library events.

No trustee, officer, or employee shall offer for sale any personal items, products or goods for personal gain, or be financially interested (directly or indirectly) in any such sales, on library grounds and/or during any library run or organized event on or off library grounds.